

Project name: "Detection and combating unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs) using a high-power microwave pulse generator (HPM) with directional emission/VECTOR" under competition no. 12/2022

Name of the beneficiary: National Center for Nuclear Research as the Leader jointly implementing the Project as a consortium with entities: Wrocław University of Science and Technology, Military University of Technology, Zakłady Mechaniczne "Tarnów", POL-SPEC-TECH-SERVICE, Military Institute of Armament Technology

Project value: PLN 82,390,019

Value of funding: PLN 81,650,019

Implementation period: 2024 – 2028

PSTS own contribution: PLN 710 000

Project co-financed by the National Center for Research and Development under competition No. 12/2022 (Round 2) for the implementation of projects in the field of scientific research and development work for national defense and security

